

STANDARD & POOR'S

Phil Edwards
Managing Director

A managing director of funds research in Standard & Poor's Investment Services, Phil Edwards leads a funds research team of over 40 fund analysts located in nine countries around the world - making him a well-informed source of independent mutual fund research information to the global funds community.

Phil has been with Standard & Poor's since 1983, holding various analytic, business development, management and planning positions. From 1983 to 1994, he worked in the Public Finance department of Standard & Poor's Credit Market Services, providing ratings to state and local governments. Phil is widely quoted in major publications around the world, providing in-depth information on the mutual fund industry